

Notes of the Women's Clubs—Affairs in Society

Women's Clubs Aid Fund For Disabled Soldiers

Dances, Card Parties and Variety of Entertainments Also Arranged to Raise Money for National Charities; Many Organizations' Elections This Week

The various women's clubs have been responding to the appeal for help for disabled soldiers and for other worthy causes in a most generous manner. Card parties, dances and entertainments of one kind and another have been given throughout the season and others are planned for the remainder of the month, to raise funds for the invalids.

During the winter the women's clubs gave more of their time, energy and funds for charity than ever before, and not an appeal for assistance has been made that has not met with an almost united effort on the part of the various organizations. The sufferers of Europe, of China and local and national charities all have benefited from the efforts of club women.

Many of the clubs are holding their annual elections within the next few days, and others already have elected officers for next season.

One of the most brilliant functions of the week was the tea given Wednesday to club presidents and their guests at the Hotel Plaza. Mrs. Henry Clark Coe, Mrs. John Francis Yawger and Frank H. Rogers were hosts. The open discussion of the pros and cons of the magnificent new $7,000,000 clubhouse, to be called the Woman's National Club, occupied an hour, and interesting developments as to additional possibilities for the social and civic comfort for the women and their friends materialized.

Among the important representatives of the international club world who spoke for the proposition were Mrs. Belle de Rivera, Mrs. A. M. Palmer, the Baroness von Klenow, Mrs. Helen Edith Totten, Mrs. Trautman, Mrs. Reginald Furman, Mrs. Edward Hawke Jr., Mrs. William W. Shepherd, Mrs. Griswold Wentz, Mrs. Charles A. J. Queck-Berner, treasurer, Mrs. Herbert Crosswell Tuttle, Mrs. Herbert E. Davidson and Mrs. Clarence M. Learned, directors.

The annual meeting of the National California Club was held at the Waldorf-Astoria Thursday, the sixteenth anniversary of the organization. The election of the trustees resulted as follows: Mrs. Thomas J. Vivian, president; Mrs. Russell Bassett, second vice-president; Mrs. George W. Severn, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles Austin Bates, treasurer; Mrs. Alfred P. Masury, historian; Mrs. C. A. J. Queck-Berner, treasurer; Mrs. Herbert Crosswell Tuttle, Mrs. Herbert E. Davidson and Mrs. Clarence M. Learned, directors.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held April 13 at the Waldorf-Astoria, and instead of a miscellaneous program there will be a social card game under the chairmanship of Mrs. Louis C. White.

The April dinner dance of the American Criterion Society, Mrs. Leonard L. Hill president, at the Hotel Commodore Friday evening will close the social season of the organization. The philanthropic side of the association, however, will not end until a bridge party, takes place April 21, of which the child patients of the Laura Franklin Free Hospital and the wounded and crippled soldiers in the various institutions will be the beneficiaries. The party will be held in the ballroom of the Hotel Commodore, with Mrs. F. Pravost Batten as the chairman.

Elaborate preparations are being made by Mrs. John P. Ladin, Mrs. Joseph Paterno and Mrs. H. W. Braun, co-chairmen, for the final dinner dance, next Friday. These officers are providing for the largest affair the Criterion ever has given. Members to the number of 400 already have made reservations, with 300 others coming in later for the largest affair of the ball and the dinner will be held in the grand ballroom. Mrs. Charles A. Bartholomae heads the committee on arrangements.

An orchestra of twelve musicians will play for the dancing, and the floor will be under the management of Dr. John C. Guinness Jr. He has as his vice-chairman Walter Moore, and will be assisted by a committee of twenty-six members.

Gay colored tissue paper caps representing the citizens of different nations will be worn by the dancers in the Paul Jones figures, and there will be prizes for the winners in the lucky contest, and splendid dances. William H. Peck, chairman of the souvenir committee, has provided small silver flower vases for the women and silver rules for the men.

Among those who will entertain large parties at dinner are Mrs. Frederic William Waller, Mrs. Myron Wilbur Robinson, Mrs. John J. Judge, Mrs. Hudson Parmelee Rose, Mrs. Joseph Paterno, Mrs. Charles A. Bartholomae, Miss Marcella Verran, Mrs. L. A. Cushman, Mrs. F. Pravost Batten, Mrs. Charles Vincent Paterno, Mrs. Charles E. Bentley, Mrs. Sidney B. Whitlock, Mrs. Margaret Weber, Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. John J. Judge, Mrs. Robert Howard Beattie and Mrs. George W. Kavanagh.

Donald L. Hill will have as her guests Mr. and Mrs. D. George Dery, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Ritchey, Mrs. Frances A. Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pitman Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Questen, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marks and Mrs. James H. Prince.

The annual business meeting, with the election of officers, will be held on the first Friday in May. Reports will be made on the plan for the program of 1922 considered. This meeting, too, will be held at the Hotel Commodore.

The annual card party of the Chicago Woman's Club of New York, Inc., Mrs. Walter Hamer Gahagan, president, will be held at the Hotel Astor to-morrow at 2 p. m. Mrs. H. C. Hering is chairman, assisted by the following patronesses: Mrs. Edward Caldwell, Mrs. L. W. Seeligsberg, Mrs. C. A. Dresser, Mrs. W. R. Garton, Miss Rachel Crosby, Mrs. E. M. Smith, Mrs. Clara Osborn, Mrs. H. Thomas, Mrs. F. M. Boyd and Mrs. John Joseph MacDonald.

The club is active in work for disabled soldiers, and this party will aid materially to increase the philanthropic fund. Tickets are $1 each and may be obtained of Mrs. H. C. Hering, 600 West 136th Street.

There was a large attendance at the meeting held by the National Society Patriotic Women of America, Wednesday, at the Waldorf-Astoria. An unusually interesting program was given, with the president, Mrs. William R. New, as the acting chairman. Preceding the program the annual reports of all officers and chairmen were presented. The election resulted in the following officers being chosen to serve two years: Mrs. William R. Stewart, president; Mrs. William Cunningham Story, second vice-president; Mrs. John Francis Yawger, fourth vice-president; Mrs. John Porter Shannon, sixth vice-president; Mrs. William Arrowsmith, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Alfred P. Masury, historian; Mrs. C. A. J. Queck-Berner, treasurer; Mrs. Herbert Crosswell Tuttle, Mrs. Herbert E. Davidson and Mrs. Clarence M. Learned, directors.

Under the auspices of the West Side Unit Club, an organization composed of the younger members of the congregation of the West Side Unitarian Church, a benefit dance will be held at the Hotel Pennsylvania on Friday evening. The West Side Unitarian Church is at the present time without a home and is obliged to hold services in Earl Hall, Columbia University. It has under construction, however, a new building at 244 Cathedral Parkway, and it is toward defraying the expenses

Mrs. William Maynard Haradon

Mrs. Haradon

Mrs. Haradon was chairman of the dinner dance given by the New York Mozart Society last Wednesday night in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Astor.

Miss Dobbin will take part in the musical fantasy which the Marquette Club is giving at the Hotel Plaza on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Shonnard is treasurer of the Women's National Republican Club. She is one of the leaders in the educational program which the club has arranged for April. The series of lectures and conferences at the club opened last Monday night.

there will be some unusual features on the program. The speakers will be Dr. Ethelbert D. Warfield, president of the college; Dr. Katherine B. Davis, executive secretary of the Bureau of Social Hygiene, and Mrs. Walter S. Conly, president of the State Federation of Clubs. One of the features will be motion pictures of recent college events.

The speakers will be Mrs. James W. Howie, who talked on "Sir James M. Barrie," and "The One-Act Play," and Mrs. Eva Phipps, who conducted a discussion on "Deburau."

The annual luncheon of the Wilson College Club of New York will take place April 23 at the Hotel Astor. The luncheon is in honor of the founder of the college, Miss Sallie Wilson, and there will be some unusual features on the program. The speakers will be Dr. Ethelbert D. Warfield, president of the college; Dr. Katherine B. Davis, executive secretary of the Bureau of Social Hygiene, and Mrs. Walter S. Conly, president of the State Federation of Clubs. One of the features will be motion pictures of recent college events.

The speakers will be Mrs. James W. Howie, who talked on "Sir James M. Barrie," and "The One-Act Play," and Mrs. Eva Phipps, who conducted a discussion on "Deburau."

The annual luncheon of the Wilson College Club of New York will take place April 23 at the Hotel Astor. The luncheon is in honor of the founder of the college, Miss Sallie Wilson, and there will be some unusual features on the program. The speakers will be Dr. Ethelbert D. Warfield, president of the college; Dr. Katherine B. Davis, executive secretary of the Bureau of Social Hygiene, and Mrs. Walter S. Conly, president of the State Federation of Clubs. One of the features will be motion pictures of recent college events.

The speakers will be Mrs. James W. Howie, who talked on "Sir James M. Barrie," and "The One-Act Play," and Mrs. Eva Phipps, who conducted a discussion on "Deburau."

The annual luncheon of the Wilson College Club of New York will take place April 23 at the Hotel Astor. The luncheon is in honor of the founder of the college, Miss Sallie Wilson, and there will be some unusual features on the program. The speakers will be Dr. Ethelbert D. Warfield, president of the college; Dr. Katherine B. Davis, executive secretary of the Bureau of Social Hygiene, and Mrs. Walter S. Conly, president of the State Federation of Clubs. One of the features will be motion pictures of recent college events.

The speakers will be Mrs. James W. Howie, who talked on "Sir James M. Barrie," and "The One-Act Play," and Mrs. Eva Phipps, who conducted a discussion on "Deburau."

The annual luncheon of the Wilson College Club of New York will take place April 23 at the Hotel Astor. The luncheon is in honor of the founder of the college, Miss Sallie Wilson, and there will be some unusual features on the program. The speakers will be Dr. Ethelbert D. Warfield, president of the college; Dr. Katherine B. Davis, executive secretary of the Bureau of Social Hygiene, and Mrs. Walter S. Conly, president of the State Federation of Clubs. One of the features will be motion pictures of recent college events.

The speakers will be Mrs. James W. Howie, who talked on "Sir James M. Barrie," and "The One-Act Play," and Mrs. Eva Phipps, who conducted a discussion on "Deburau."

The annual luncheon of the Wilson College Club of New York will take place April 23 at the Hotel Astor. The luncheon is in honor of the founder of the college, Miss Sallie Wilson, and there will be some unusual features on the program. The speakers will be Dr. Ethelbert D. Warfield, president of the college; Dr. Katherine B. Davis, executive secretary of the Bureau of Social Hygiene, and Mrs. Walter S. Conly, president of the State Federation of Clubs. One of the features will be motion pictures of recent college events.

The speakers will be Mrs. James W. Howie, who talked on "Sir James M. Barrie," and "The One-Act Play," and Mrs. Eva Phipps, who conducted a discussion on "Deburau."

The annual luncheon of the Wilson College Club of New York will take place April 23 at the Hotel Astor. The luncheon is in honor of the founder of the college, Miss Sallie Wilson, and there will be some unusual features on the program. The speakers will be Dr. Ethelbert D. Warfield, president of the college; Dr. Katherine B. Davis, executive secretary of the Bureau of Social Hygiene, and Mrs. Walter S. Conly, president of the State Federation of Clubs. One of the features will be motion pictures of recent college events.

The speakers will be Mrs. James W. Howie, who talked on "Sir James M. Barrie," and "The One-Act Play," and Mrs. Eva Phipps, who conducted a discussion on "Deburau."

The annual luncheon of the Wilson College Club of New York will take place April 23 at the Hotel Astor. The luncheon is in honor of the founder of the college, Miss Sallie Wilson, and

"Gardens" Is Topic At Luncheon Held By Eclectic Club

"City Tree Planting" and "Civic Art" Also Are Discussed; Beethoven Society Plans 5 Events in April

"Gardens and Outdoor Life" was the topic Wednesday at the regular fortnightly meeting and luncheon of the Eclectic Club (Mrs. Albert Canfield, president) at the Waldorf-Astoria.

"City Tree Planting" was the topic of a talk by Mrs. Benjamin Nicoli, last evening. The subject of the luncheon was "The Artistic Effects in the Garden" was the subject of a talk by Mrs. Jessie Tarbox Beales; Mrs. James S. Metcalf told of the City Gardens Club; Miss Anna Maxwell Jones delivered an address on "Civic Art," and Mrs. John Walton Paris, chairman of the day, gave an interesting short talk.

"Spring Has Come" and other songs were sung by Miss Margaret O'Hearn, contralto, accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd Willy. Piano selections were played by Miss Billy Cameron, and Jack Storey sang comedy songs.

Other guests of honor, besides the speakers, were Mrs. Ellis Parker Butler, Mrs. Richard Foster, Mrs. Harold A. Day, Mrs. T. Edison Doolittle, Mrs. J. Edison Doolittle, Mrs. Harry Hastings and Mrs. George H. Childs. Mrs. Louis Henry Mathez was chairman of luncheon, and Mrs. Charles G. Braxman, chairman of music. The usual afternoon of auction bridge was in charge of Mrs. William Durland.

The Beethoven Society (Mrs. Aida Tanini-Tagliavia, president) will give five important social events during April. The last private evening concert will take place in the large ballroom of the Plaza, Wednesday, April 20. Arthur Schoell, barytone, and the Tollfren Trio will be singing the artists assisting the Beethoven Choral Society, conducted by Louis F. Koennenich.

The officers and board of directors will be entertained at tea Friday by Mrs. Tagliavia at her residence, 59 West Seventy-fourth Street. Mrs. George T. Lynch will entertain the choral members with a reception on April 22 at her home, 3 Sheridan Square. A card party and tea will be given for the officers and board of directors on April 26 by Mrs. Walker Levitt and Mrs. Maud B. Turner at the residence of the latter, 254 West Seventy-third Street. The annual dinner and dance will be held April 29 in the ballroom of the Hotel McAlpin. Miss Edna Louise Henderson and Mrs. Shearwood Hyatt are the chairmen.

The Manhattan Matinee Club (Mrs. Jessie Emerson Moffat, president and founder) will have two American girl potteages of the club present at the business meeting April 18. A large card party for the benefit of the philanthropic fund, which also supports a French orphan, will be held April 26 at the Waldorf-Astoria, in charge of Mrs. Frank H. Seardorf, acting president. Mrs. Howard Clinton Russ is hostess of the evening theater party on Tuesday to see Grant Mitchell in "The Champion" at the Longacre Theater.

Another card party has been arranged for the blind fund by Mrs. Marc Reynolds, chairman of the day. The business meeting of the club will be held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Hardie Proctor, 242 West 103d Street. Mrs. E. B. Hollister will be the hostess. Mrs. Kingsland will give a reception for the club members at her home Tuesday.

The club is active in work for disabled soldiers, and this party will aid materially to increase the philanthropic fund. Tickets are $1 each and may be obtained of Mrs. H. C. Hering, 600 West 136th Street.

There was a large attendance at the meeting held by the National Society Patriotic Women of America, Wednesday, at the Waldorf-Astoria. An unusually interesting program was given, with the president, Mrs. William R. New, as the acting chairman. Preceding the program the annual reports of all officers and chairmen were presented. The election resulted in the following officers being chosen to serve two years: Mrs. William R. Stewart, president; Mrs. William Cunningham Story, second vice-president; Mrs. John Francis Yawger, fourth vice-president; Mrs. John Porter Shannon, sixth vice-president; Mrs. William Arrowsmith, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Alfred P. Masury, historian; Mrs. C. A. J. Queck-Berner, treasurer; Mrs. Herbert Crosswell Tuttle, Mrs. Herbert E. Davidson and Mrs. Clarence M. Learned, directors.

Under the auspices of the West Side Unit Club, an organization composed of the younger members of the congregation of the West Side Unitarian Church, a benefit dance will be held at the Hotel Pennsylvania on Friday evening. The West Side Unitarian Church is at the present time without a home and is obliged to hold services in Earl Hall, Columbia University. It has under construction, however, a new building at 244 Cathedral Parkway, and it is toward defraying the expenses

there will be some unusual features on the program. The speakers will be Dr. Ethelbert D. Warfield, president of the college; Dr. Katherine B. Davis, executive secretary of the Bureau of Social Hygiene, and Mrs. Walter S. Conly, president of the State Federation of Clubs. One of the features will be motion pictures of recent college events.

The speakers will be Mrs. James W. Howie, who talked on "Sir James M. Barrie," and "The One-Act Play," and Mrs. Eva Phipps, who conducted a discussion on "Deburau."

The annual luncheon of the Wilson College Club of New York will take place April 23 at the Hotel Astor. The luncheon is in honor of the founder of the college, Miss Sallie Wilson, and there will be some unusual features on the program. The speakers will be Dr. Ethelbert D. Warfield, president of the college; Dr. Katherine B. Davis, executive secretary of the Bureau of Social Hygiene, and Mrs. Walter S. Conly, president of the State Federation of Clubs. One of the features will be motion pictures of recent college events.

The speakers will be Mrs. James W. Howie, who talked on "Sir James M. Barrie," and "The One-Act Play," and Mrs. Eva Phipps, who conducted a discussion on "Deburau."

The annual luncheon of the Wilson College Club of New York will take place April 23 at the Hotel Astor. The luncheon is in honor of the founder of the college, Miss Sallie Wilson, and

Mozart Society Gives Brilliant Dinner-Dance

Governor Edwards, Mayor Hyman and Mrs. Noble McConnell Speak at Affair Given at Hotel Astor

About 500 Are Present

New York Theater Club Nominates Officers and Arranges Matinee Party

One of the most brilliant affairs ever given by the New York Mozart Society, Mrs. Noble McConnell president, was the dinner-dance held Wednesday night in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Astor. About 500 members and guests of the organization were present, among them being Governor Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey and Mrs. Edwards, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. McConnell, and Mayor and Mrs. Hyman, who were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Royal S. Copeland. The menu was an elaborate one and the chairman of the dinner-dance, Mrs. William Maynard Haradon, provided many attractive souvenirs and fun-making devices, including confetti, balloons, etc. Colored lights were thrown on the dancers and the scene was a charming one. Speeches were made by Governor Edwards, Mayor Hyman, Mrs. McConnell and others.

The patronesses were Mrs. McConnell, Mrs. Benjamin Adriance, Mrs. Thomas W. Bentley, Mrs. Philip C. Doerum, Mrs. William H. McGee and Mrs. Owen J. Williams.

The associate chairmen were Mrs. Maurice Ballin, Mrs. Bertrand H. Billman, Mrs. Edgar O. Challenger, Mrs. Frank G. Cochran, Mrs. Royal S. Copeland, Mrs. Richard J. Carson, Mrs. Robert H. Davis, Mrs. Richard Denbigh, Mrs. Frank A. Edmund, Mrs. Samuel Gardner Estabrook, Mrs. Grace Ethel Folk, Mrs. E. O. A. Glickner, Mrs. Walter W. Griffith, Mrs. Henry H. Havins, Mrs. Carrie Hession, Mrs. Joseph Francis Martin, Mrs. Henry W. McCandless, Mrs. Frank A. Peteler, Mrs. Lincoln S. Rogers, Mrs. John J. Root Jr., Mrs. Emma S. Seaman, Mrs. E. Bassford Schmaltz, Mrs. Cary F. Simmons, Mrs. F. MacDonald Sinclair, Mrs. Frederick C. Stevens, Mrs. John C. Taylor, Mrs. Mrs. Lionel Van Praagh, Mrs. Augustine Wendel and Mrs. Carl C. Wooster.

The society will give its third and last evening concert of the season at the Hotel Astor on April 19. The artists will be Claire Lillian Peteler and Titta Ruffo, assisted by the choral, under the direction of Richard T. Percy with Charles Gilbert Sproes at the piano.

The annual springtime festival and breakfast in pastels of the society will take place at the Hotel Astor on May 7. The color scheme will be pastel shades, and the members and their guests are requested to wear light-colored gowns and flower hats. Mrs. Samuel Gardner Estabrook is the chairman.

The Woman's Forum, Miss Helen Varick Boring, president, will hold a meeting in the music room of the Hotel Biltmore Friday morning at 11 o'clock. General Louis W. Stotesbury will be the speaker and take as his subject "The Application of War-time Enthusiasm to Peace-time Problems." There will be discussion on the floor following the presentation of the topic.

This is the annual meeting of the forum and the election of some of the officers will take place. Several prominent women from out of town will be the guests of the club.

Nomination of officers of the New York Theater Club was held at the business meeting Tuesday. Mrs. Belle de Rivera, founder and president, thanked the members present for the automobile presented to her at the last social, which was the tenth anniversary of the club.

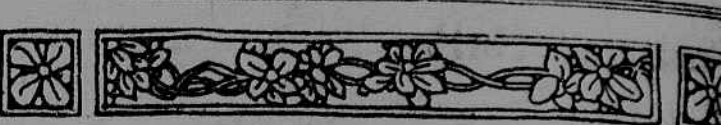

During the study period Mrs. Ray Loeb led the discussion of the play, "The Champion," which the members attended last week. The next social of the club will be held at the Hotel Astor April 19. Mrs. Thomas Slack, chairman of program, will present Miss Genevieve Guey in a guinea-honored. The club's next matinee party will be to see "Little Lord Fauntleroy."

The Missouri Club met Wednesday at the Hotel Astor, Mrs. William Baldwin Smith 2d, president.

Mrs. W. H. Aring was chairman of program and presented "Art" as the theme. Miss Alice Shaw for the day, George Grey Barnard, the sculptor, spoke on the "Monument to the New Age."

Miss Jewel Martin made her debut as a pianist. Piano numbers were played by Mrs. Julia Martin and selected readings were given by Georgia Haukhurst Gilbert.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bacon Custer, widow of General George A. Custer, was the guest of honor at the March meeting of the Michigan Women in New York. Mrs. J. J. Bush president, held in the apartments of Mrs. Alfred Hurreys in the Hotel Ansonia on March 31. Mrs. Custer, who is a native of Monroe, Mich., gave a talk on her personal experiences while accompanying her husband's command during his campaign against the Indians on the plains. At the close of her reminiscence she was made an honorary life member of the society. A musical program by Mrs. Mary Wagner Gilbert followed, after which tea was served.

"Sa Camille"

FRONT LACE CORSETS

Gives one the maximum style with comfort. Front lacing is the newer, more convenient method of fastening.

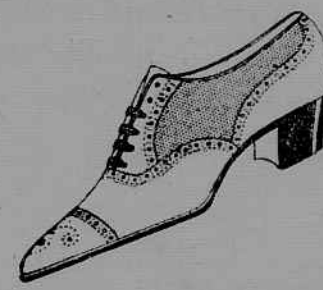

These corsets have three distinctive style features. An inspection is invited.

3648 Topless Sports Corset—low, lightly boned (as illustrated). Made of pink Brocade. Elastic top and elastic in back... $5.00

"Sa Camille" Corset Studio

543 Fifth Ave. at 45th St. NEW YORK.

WOMEN'S WALKING OXFORD

In Tan Russia Calfskin, with Fawn Buckskin Inlay, welt sole and military heel; also in Black Calfskin, with Taupe Buckskin Inlay, welt sole and military heel.

$12.50

Cammeyer shoes combine distinctive style with unusual wearing qualities.

CAMMEYER

Stamped on a Shoe Makers Standard of Merit

47-51 W. 34th St. New York

Newark Store—649 Broad St.

The Antique Furniture Exchange

6 East 33d Street, near 5th Avenue

WISH TO ANNOUNCE A SPECIAL SALE OF

Antique Chests of Drawers

IN MAPLE, MAHOGANY AND WALNUT

Many Quaint and Interesting Pieces in this Collection

PRICES RANGE FROM

$49.50 to $122.00

THE MOST POPULAR PIECES OF THE MOMENT

FURS

should be stored for the summer in our modern dry cold air vaults.

The Manhattan Storage AND WAREHOUSE CO.

Seventh Ave. & 52nd St. Circle 1700 Lexington Ave. & 42nd St. Murray Hill 5084

Fireproof Buildings for Storage of Household Goods.

Progressive Parents:

Progressive business men are always in search of progressive boys—the kind that are not satisfied with the mere getting of a job, but who want to forge ahead and in turn become progressive business men.

The New York Tribune Help Wanted Columns frequently contain excellent opportunities for wide-awake, progressive boys.

Consult them, and if you do not find advertised a position that you think will suit your boy, try an advertisement in The New York Tribune's "Situations Wanted" columns. Bring or mail it to The Tribune Office, 154 Nassau St., or go to any of The Tribune's Want Ad agents—conveniently located in all parts of Greater New York. Rates for Situation Wanted ads—12 words for 25c each insertion and 20c for each additional line of 6 words.

Kertzz
ENGLISH RIDING HABITS
SMART
TOWN AND COUNTRY CLOTHES FOR WINTER AND SOUTHERN SPORTS
TO ORDER AND READY-TO-WEAR
EXCLUSIVE FABRICS FROM THE MASTER LOOMS OF THE WORLD
581 FIFTH AVENUE, N.Y.

SHE was Miss Thelma Lucile Martens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Martens. Her wedding took place on March 30 in the Church of St. Ursula, Mount Vernon.

A FEW fortunate purchases of high-character Spring Models, from some of the foremost modistes, at remarkably big price concessions, enable us to present

1,200 Smart Frocks
@ $24 to $98
Elsewhere about $50 to $225

200 Choice Suits
@ $49 to $89
About $100 to $200 elsewhere

250 Coats & Wraps
@ $59 to $95
Regularly about $125 to $250

MAXON MODEL GOWNS
1537 Broadway, Cor. 45th St.
(one flight up—Elevator or Stairway)